

IPAN Board of Trustees

Mr. Nigel Otter—
Managing Trustee

Nigel has been with IPAN since its establishment and has been leading IPAN as its Managing Trustee since 2002. He is a competent field worker and a well-known, nationally awarded animal & environmental activist in India. He is particularly interested in finding sustainable solutions to the man-animal conflict.

Mr. Marigan

Marigan has been with IPAN from the very beginning. He belongs to the Honey Kurumba tribe community in the Nilgiris, who highly value the healthy environment and peaceful co-existence of people and animals.

Mr. Noel Otter—Treasurer

Having been on the Board of Trustees since IPAN's establishment in 1997, Noel is a loyal support and a source of good advice and ideas with a great sense of humor. After many years on the coffee estates in Karnataka, he is now involved on the field of education running a

Mr. K. Hariharan, advocate

Mr. Hariharan has been involved with IPAN's work first as a legal advisor and then as a member of the board since 2008. He has strong calling for animal welfare and has, for example, fought many cases in court for Animal Welfare Board of India.

IPAN Board of Trustees

Mr. Mani

A member of the Hirula -tribe community, Mani has loyally served IPAN on the Board of Trustees since IPAN's establishment. He resides in Karnataka where he cultivates land and keeps a small herd of cows. Whenever Mani visits the Hill View Farm Animal Refuge, he is always happily greeted by the resident dogs.
